KANSAS & MISSOURI-QUALIFICATIONS FOR OCCUPANCY PRICE BROTHERS MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Welcome to our community. Before you apply to rent an apartment, please review our rental application approval criteria. The following information is offered so that applicants will have a detailed statement of rental qualifying policies. Although we have attempted to make this document easy to read and understand, by its nature as a statement of policy, it includes formal language and legal terms. Any questions about the information in this document may be directed to any member of our management team.

Definitions

The term "applicant(s)" in these criteria means the person(s) that will be signing the lease as a "resident". The term "occupants" in these criteria means the person(s) that are authorized occupants under the lease. Please also note that these are our current rental criteria; nothing contained in these requirements shall constitute a guarantee or representation by us that all current residents and occupants have met these requirements. There may be occupants that resided on the premises prior to these requirements going into effect. Additionally, our ability to verify whether these requirements have been met is limited to the information we receive from the various credit, criminal and evictions reporting services used.

Non Discrimination

We will not discriminate against any person in the rental of an apartment because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, familial status, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap.

Confidentiality

We maintain a strict policy of confidentiality and privacy for our applicants and residents. We do not discuss information on applications with anyone other than the applicant. In addition, we do not discuss individual credit reports with an applicant. If you would like to discuss or dispute anything in your credit report, you will need to contact the credit reporting agency that provided the report. Upon your request, we will provide you the name and address of that reporting agency.

Community Policies: Maximum Number of Occupants - Prohibited Pets - Parking Restrictions

- 1 Bedroom=2 persons; 1 Bedroom w/study=3 persons, maximum of 2 adults; 2 Bedroom=4 persons, maximum of 2 adults; 3 Bedroom=6 persons, maximum of 3 adults. All occupants 18 years of age and older will be considered as residents under the lease agreement and will be asked to sign the lease as a responsible resident. A rental application is to be completed by each occupant 18 years of age and older, without omission or falsification of information.
- Residents may keep a maximum of two vehicles per apartment; three vehicles are permitted if the unit is a three bedroom.
- Aggressive breeds of dogs and exotic, feral or wild animals are prohibited. Aggressive breeds including, but not limited to, Pit Bull, Rottweiler, German Shepherd, "Husky type", Malamute, Doberman Pinscher, Chow, Great Dane, Saint Bernard, Akita, Wolf Hybrid, and any mixed breed that includes the aforementioned, are specifically prohibited and Landlord has discretion to limit other breeds.
- Cats The amount of pet deposit will vary depending if the cat(s) are declawed.

Criminal History

Criminal checks will be conducted. A felony conviction, any felony or misdemeanor conviction for a crime against a person, or incarceration for any offense, within the past 7 years will not be accepted. "Conviction" includes but is not limited to a deferred judgment; a withheld adjudication; a plea of nolo contendre; a guilty plea; or a plea bargain to any lesser charge, including to a misdemeanor. "Incarceration" means being jailed pursuant to a conviction, not a mere arrest. Conviction of any sexual offense will not be accepted. Convictions for any terrorism related charges will not be accepted.

Self-employed applicants are required to provide either the previous year's tax return or bank statements for the last 3 full months. Monthly income must be equal to or greater than 3 times the monthly market rent for the chosen unit. We will accept at minimum a monthly income of 2 ½ times the monthly market rent with a qualified guarantor. Roommates must have a combined income equal to or greater than 4 times the monthly market rent for the chosen unit. Anyone not having a monthly income may qualify with a current bank balance equal to or greater than 2 years' rental payments. A copy of the bank statement showing this balance is required. Court ordered alimony and child support will be considered as income. A copy of the court order is required. Pensions or Social Security are considered income with a copy of applicant's pension or Social Security check or a copy of a bank statement showing direct deposit of the pension or Social Security payment. Full time students (with no income) may qualify with quarantor.

Guarantor

A guarantor may be required if the applicant does not meet the minimum income or credit history standards set forth above. Applicants must, at a minimum, meet the standards in one of the categories in order for us to accept a guarantor. A guarantor may not be used a substitution for bad rental history. The guarantor requirement may be waived if the applicant is willing to execute a six month lease and pay for the entire lease up-front. This is to allow time to establish credit with the apartment community. A guarantor may also be required for full time students and/or individuals new to the country. Proof of full time student status, green card, or school or work visa is required. A qualified guarantor must be employed and show proof of income 4 times the monthly rental amount by providing their last 3 consecutive pay stubs or the most recent W-2 and 1 pay stub. Pensions or Social Security are considered income with a copy of applicant's pension or Social Security check or a copy of a bank statement showing direct deposit of the pension or Social Security payment. Self-employed guarantors will be required to provide either the previous year's tax return or bank statements for the last 3 full months. Guarantors are subject to a non-refundable $40 application fee. Guarantors must reside in the United States.

Credit History

Price Brothers Management Co. uses an independent credit reporting company to evaluate credit history. This company uses a statistical model to evaluate applicants' ability to pay rent on a timely basis. The scoring model is based on applicants past credit and financial performance only and scores are derived from real data comparing applicants' performance to that of other applicants with similar profiles. This comparison allows our credit reporting company to predict how likely it is that an applicant will be able to pay rent and fulfill other lease obligations. Based on the credit score, applications will be accepted, rejected or accepted with conditions. If an application is rejected or accepted with conditions, the applicant will be provided with the name and contact information for the consumer reporting agencies which provided the credit report. If an applicant has filed for bankruptcy, he or she must provide documentation showing the discharge of the filing. Any medical trade listing or unpaid school loans which applicant requests consideration for must be accompanied by an explanation.

Rental History

Price Brothers Management Co. or its agents will contact previous landlords in order to verify rental history. Applicants with negative rental history occurring within the last 3 years will be denied. Negative rental history includes any outstanding debt to previous landlords, excessive late payments, excessive returned checks to previous landlords, damages owed, and evictions filed and not remedied. If the applicant has no rental history, we will consider this to be a positive rental history.

Roommates/Co-Residents

Roommates or co-residents application data will be combined during the verification process. All applicants must meet credit, criminal, evictions and rental history standards in order to be accepted. Roommates must have a combined monthly income equal to or greater than 4 times the monthly market rent for the chosen unit.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment or to take another adverse action against you must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:

Acknowledgment of Resident Insurance Requirements

Price Brothers Management Company requires that residents maintain personal liability coverage (property damage and bodily injury) with a limit of not less than $100,000.00 each occurrence and $500.00 in medical payments coverage for the entire term of their lease. Pursuant to Section 17 of the Lease Agreement, all residents are required to show proof of insurance prior to taking possession of their apartment home and at each lease renewal. All lease holders must be listed on the insurance policy. This is an ongoing obligation and the failure to maintain coverage is a breach of the lease and can result in eviction.

We have established this requirement to ensure that you do not suffer the financial hardship of paying on your own for repairs after an accident you cause. Kitchen fires, frozen pipes, or flooded premises which occur when you or your guests haven't taken proper care can result in you being held responsible for many thousands of dollars in damages. Maintaining renters insurance liability coverage can provide protection at a very reasonable cost.

YOU MUST OBTAIN

PERSONAL LIABILITY COVERAGE
WITH A LIMIT OF NOT LESS THAN $100,000 EACH OCCURRENCE AND $500 IN MEDICAL PAYMENT COVERAGE, AND

AND YOU MUST ADD

ATTN: RENTERS INSURANCE

AS AN INTERESTED PARTY

In addition, we strongly recommend that you obtain personal contents coverage for your belongings. The coverage we require will not protect your personal property such as clothing, electronics, furniture, kitchen implements, etc. against loss or damage. You would be amazed to learn how much it would cost to replace the simple things that you need and use each day. These items can be protected at a very reasonable rate, and we urge you to discuss the appropriate amount of contents coverage with your insurance agent.

Prior to taking possession of an apartment home, each resident shall provide a Certificate of Insurance from their insurance company or agent evidencing the required coverage. The Certificate shall require that the insurance company give us 10 days written notice of cancellation or non-renewal of such coverage. You are required to provide us with a Certificate of Insurance each time the policy is renewed as evidence of coverage throughout the term of your lease.
