Welcome to our community. Before you apply to rent an apartment, please take time to review our rental application and approval criteria. The following information is offered so that all applicants will have available to them a detailed statement of the rental qualifying policies.

We will not discriminate against any person in the rental of an apartment because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, familial status, sexual orientation or mental or physical handicap.

The term “applicant(s)” under these criteria means the persons that will be signing the Lease as a “resident”; the term “occupant(s)” in these criteria means the person or persons that are authorized occupants under the lease. Please also note that these are our current rental criteria; nothing contained in these requirements shall constitute a guarantee or representation by us that all residents and current occupants currently living here have met these requirements. There may be residents and occupants that have resided on the premises prior to these requirements going into effect; additionally, our ability to verify whether these requirements have been met is limited to the information we receive from the various credit reporting services used.

Apartment Community:

No person under the age of 18 can be a leaseholder unless emancipated at this property.

Application for Residency:

An Application for Residency must be completed and maintained for each adult applicant. Each applicant must complete the rental application fully and accurately. Falsification of information will result in denial of residency.

“Personas con discapacidades tienen derecho de pedir acomodaciones razonables para participar en el proceso de aplicación.”

Las Aplicaciones seran aceptadas solamente por via, correo, fax, y correo electronico, y las aplicaciones no serán procesadas, hasta no recibir la cuota por procesar las aplicaciones. Gracias.

Individuals/people with disabilities have a right to request reasonable accommodations to participate in the application process.

All adult occupants will be considered as responsible residents under the Lease Agreement and will be asked to sign the Lease as a resident.

Application Fee:

Each applicant must pay a non-refundable application fee of $20 for the first applicant, and $15 for each additional applicant. Because there are no exceptions, it is important that you review this information carefully before applying; making certain that, to the best of your knowledge you meet the rental application approval criteria stated.

Applicants with no income must provide evidence of their ability to pay utility bills and meet basic household living expenses (see Zero Income Certification).

Credit History:

A credit report is part of the approval process and can disqualify an applicant from renting an apartment home at this community. A credit report that could result in denial is one which reflects past or current bad debts, late payments or unpaid bills, liens, judgments or bankruptcies. The credit report will be run by a 3rd party provider.

Mission Village of Monahans will run a credit check and obtain a credit report on all Adult applicant(s). The purpose of the credit report is to obtain information on the applicant's past history of meeting financial obligations, future ability to make timely rent payments and to determine whether the applicant has ever been evicted from a rental unit. #### Violence Against Womens Act (VAWA):

VAWA 2013 is designed to protect both child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The Landlord may not consider incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other "good cause" for termination of assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim of abuse. The Final Rule was published on December 16, 2016.

A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants:

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under this (or any) property's HUD program requirements you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance solely because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants:

You may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing solely because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under this (or any) property's HUD program requirements solely based on criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household:

Management may divide (bifurcate) your lease to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If management chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, management may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants.

If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the only tenant who established eligibility for assistance under the program, management must allow the tenant who is (or has been) a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period to:

- (a) establish eligibility under the program, or
- (b) establish eligibility under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or
- (c) to find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, management must follow federal, state, and local eviction procedures. To divide a lease management may (but is not required to) ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit:

Upon your request, management may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and keep your assistance. To approve a request management may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If the request is a request for emergency transfer management may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

- (1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation as described in the documentation section below.
- (2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form or may accept another written or oral request.
- (3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer, you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90 calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90 calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Management will keep all requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as well as the location of any move by such victims and their families, confidential. The property’s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers and, effective June 14, 2017, management must give you a copy if you ask for it.

Documenting You Are (or Have Been) a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Management can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from management must be in writing, and management must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Management may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to management as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if management asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by management with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.

- Any other statement or evidence that management has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, management does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice. If management receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), management has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, management does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality:

Management must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Management must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of management (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law. Management must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual.

Management, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to management to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Management needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires management or your landlord to release the information. VAWA does not limit management’s duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights Under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated:

You can be evicted, and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, management cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted, and your assistance terminated, if management can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If management can demonstrate the above, management should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Non-Compliance with The Requirements of This Notice

You may report a covered housing provider’s violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with Texas Department of Housing & Community Affairs.

A positive record of prompt monthly payment, sufficient notice, with no damages is expected. A record of disturbance to neighbors, destruction of property or living or housekeeping habits which adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other residents will be denied occupancy. For applicants who are homeowners, permission must be granted to verify payment history with the bank or

Applicants with no rental history may provide letters from their family or guardians certifying the applicant has never rented anywhere and has not established rental history but will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Wait List:

All applications, whether complete, eligible, or ineligible, will be placed on the wait list. Existing households on the wait list for in house transfers take priority over prospective tenants.

The wait list will document the final disposition of all applications: (Rejected, withdrawn, or placed in a unit). The date and time a complete application was submitted will be recorded on the wait list and will establish priority for selection from the list. If an applicant submits an incomplete application, they will be notified in writing within 7 days of the items that are needed for the application to be considered complete and that priority will not be established until the additional items are received.

Selecting Applications from the Wait List:

Once an applicant has submitted a complete application and signed a form authorizing the owner to verify employment, the date and time must be recorded on the wait list to establish priority for selection.

Selection from the wait list will be made per date and time in the following order:

Vacant units will be assigned and/or offered to applicants/residents of the wait list for the following:

1. In place residents:

- Units needing transfer because of family size;
- Needing a new unit because of changes in family composition;
- Unit transfer because of deeper subsidy;
- A unit transfer for a medical reason certified by a doctor; or
- Unit transfer based on the need for an accessible unit.

2. New Applicants

- Applicants displaced by Government action or presidential declared disaster.
- Applicants that indicate need for accessible units will be prioritized over those applicants who do not when an accessible unit is available.

NOTE: The order of preference is current residents first, then applicants. Requested/needed transfers are recorded on a separate list; being kept in the Waiting List Master File. The order of preference remains the same as listed above. Within 7 calendar days of receipt of a complete application, the applicant will be notified in writing that the applicant has been selected for immediate occupancy, placed on a wait list, or rejected. Applicants that qualify under VAWA will be considered without regard for the qualifying event.

The wait list will remain open until such a time that an announcement stating otherwise is posted at Mission Village of Monahans. Should the applicant pool exceed the number of applicants that may be housed in a 1.5-year time period, the management may opt to close the list for a specific period. This date and period of closure will be stated within the closure notice posted in the leasing office. Notice that the wait list will be re-opened will be given in the same manner it was closed.

Applicants must update their applications every 6 months with current information. Any applicant that fails to supply the requested information within 14 days of the original request will automatically be purged from the active wait list.

Unit Transfers

- Reasonable Accommodations, which includes transferring into a unit that is specially designed for a person or household member that needs the features of a handicapped accessible unit.
- Transferring to meet Occupancy Standards.
- Transferring because they have been on the wait list for a lower rent restricted unit.

A new security deposit will be required for anyone transferring into another unit. Rent and late fees must be paid in full prior to transferring into any other unit.

All persons transferring will be required to have a detailed inspection done on the unit that they are transferring from, and must correct any deficiencies, such as cleaning, prior to being allowed to transfer units. Any damages found from this detailed inspection, that is not normal wear and tear, must be paid, or payment arrangements made, per the damage cost list, prior to transferring into the new unit. Resident and management must conduct a move out inspection together. All cleaning or damages not corrected or missed during the detailed inspection will be deducted from the security deposit that is being held for that unit. Within 5 working days of the transfer, the resident will receive a Security Deposit Disposition that shows what deductions are being held from your deposit and what you will be receiving in refund. If the resident owes after deducting any charges from the security deposit, the resident must pay these charges within 30 calendar days. Failure to pay any cleaning or damage charges from the unit that resident transferred from, will result in termination of lease from the new unit.

Please note, that because of program elections transfers may or may not be permitted between certain buildings.

Denied Applications:

Within 7 days of determining whether an application is approved or denied, the applicant will be provided a written notification of grounds for rejection along with contact information for any third party used to gather information used in this process.

A Denied Application Log will be kept on-site that documents, at minimum, basic demographic information, the reason for the denial along with the current selection criteria in place at the time the applicant applied and a notice of the denial notice.
